Dollar General has approved your organization UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI for tax exempt status within your state of operation.

Remember, representatives of your organization must have a copy of this form with them at the time of purchase in order to utilize your exemption. The organization's tax identification number is embedded in the bar code below. Dollar General's store personnel do not have access to your tax records and cannot look-up your tax status without this certificate.

For your organization's records, we have included a bar code representing your tax-exempt account number at the bottom of this notification. You must bring a copy of this notification with you when purchasing merchandise.

If you are a Charged Sales customer, you will also need to bring your Organizational Charged Sales card too.

SUMMARY OF ACCOUNT DETAILS AND OBLIGATIONS

If a tax-exempt status is affirmed by the Organization, the Organization attests that all purchases made using a tax exemption and tax exempt status is affirmed by the Organization, the Organization understands that it assumes sole responsibility for any use of this exemption with state and local laws. The Organization understands that use or misuse of the tax exemption can lead to civil liabilities and/or criminal prosecution. The Organization agrees to be solely responsible for and to indemnify and hold harmless Dollar General for any sales and/or use taxes imposed, due, or owing with respect to any purchases made using your tax exempt status, whether by you or by another party, with or without your knowledge and whether such failure to pay such taxes was intentional or negligent. Such evidence must be provided at the time of each transaction. Failure to provide such evidence will result in the Organization paying sales tax on all purchases in which such evidence is not provided.
